

Tourist information

Welcome!

We are delighted you have decided to visit our country and wish you a warm welcome.

All nations love their country and consider it to be the most beautiful of all. The Croats call their country "Our beautiful Homeland", after the opening verses of the Croatian national anthem.

The Republic of Croatia is a European parliamentary state and a part of European political and cultural history. It is classified as one of the medium-sized European countries such as Denmark, Ireland, Slovakia and Switzerland.

Croatia is a land of open frontiers and simple customs regulations. It is also a peaceful country and one that is respectful towards its guests. We strive to make our country beautiful to all those who visit it and we do our best to ensure that visitors take only beautiful memories home with them.

Welcome to Croatia!

GENERAL INFORMATION

Geographic position

Croatia occupies the largest part of the eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea which, as a part of the Mediterranean Sea, penetrates deepest into European soil. Croatia's shoreline and numerous islands enjoy the majority of the Adriatic coastline. The narrow Dinara Mountain Range separates the country's Mediterranean region from its Central European continental part, which spans from the easterly edges of the Alps in the North-West to the shores of the Danube in the East, encompassing the southern part of the fertile Pannonian lowlands.

Surface area

The mainland covers an area of 56 594 km² and coastal waters cover a surface area of 31 479 km².

Population

Croatia has 4 290 612 inhabitants.

Demographics

The majority of the population are Croats, with the largest minorities being Serbs, Bosnians, Slovenes, Hungarians, Czechs, Italians and Albanians.

System of government

Croatia is a multi-party parliamentary republic.

Capital

With 792 875 inhabitants, Zagreb is the economic, transport, cultural and academic centre of the country.

Length of the coastline

6 278 km, of which 4 398 km is made up of island coastlines, solitary rocks and reefs.

Number of islands, islets, solitary rocks and reefs

1 244. The largest island is Cres (405.7km²), the highest island is Brač (Vidova Gora peak at 778m), the most indented island is Pag, the longest island is Hvar and the most inhabited one is Krk. There are 50 inhabited islands.

Highest peak

Dinara, 1 831 m above sea level.

Climate:

There are three climate zones in Croatia: in the country's continental interior the prevailing climate zone is moderately continental, while the mountain climate prevails at 1200m above the sea level.

The areas along the Adriatic coast have a pleasantly mild Mediterranean climate with a large number of sunny days, summers are hot and dry and winters are mild and wet. The average temperatures in the continental interior are: January -2 °C to 0 °C, with somewhat lower temperatures in the mountains; July temperatures reach 20 °C- 22°C, and around 13°C in the highlands. The average temperatures in the Littoral (Adriatic Coast) are: January 5°C - 9 °C and July 23°C - 26°C. Winter sea temperature is about 12 °C and it reaches approximately 25 °C in the summer.

Currency:

The official currency in Croatia is the kuna (1 kuna = 100 lipa). Foreign currency can be exchanged in banks, exchange offices, post offices and in the majority of tourist information offices, hotels and campsites. Credit cards (Eurocard / Mastercard, Visa, American Express and Diners) are accepted in almost all hotels, marinas, restaurants, shops and cash machines.

USEFUL INFORMATION

Travel documents:

A valid passport or some other identification document recognised by international agreement; for certain countries a personal identity card is sufficient (a document which testifies to the identity and citizenship of the bearer).

Information: Diplomatic missions and consular offices of the Republic of Croatia abroad or the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Republic of Croatia (Tel: +385 1 4569 964, e-mail: stranci@mvep.hr; vize@mvep.hr; web: www.mvep.hr)

Customs regulations:

Customs regulations in the Republic of Croatia are almost entirely harmonised with EU regulations and standards, but the value of those non-commercial items that are brought into the country for personal use and are exempt from tax duty or PDV (VAT), is limited to only 1 000 HRK (kuna). Foreign and local currency and cheques may be freely taken in and out of the country by both foreign and Croatian citizens with foreign residence, but transfers of an amount of 10 000 Euros or more must be declared to a customs official. Valuable professional equipment and other technical devices must also be declared to a customs official at the border crossing.

VAT is refunded to persons who do not have permanent or temporary residence in Croatia, for individual goods purchased in Croatia, for amounts in excess of 740.00 HRK (Kuna), upon the presentation of a Tax Cheque form verified by a customs official during the export of purchased goods, 3 months from the day of purchase at the latest or from the date on the relevant receipt. Foreign nationals must claim Tax refunds within six months of the receipt issue date.

When importing objects for personal use over the value of the total of 1000 kuna, the same is subject to import duties (customs and VAT), which is implemented directly on the border if their value is up to 1200 EUR (when the imported goods originate from the EU and other countries with which Croatia has a free trade agreement - Bosnia, Macedonia, Serbia, Turkey), or up to 5000 kuna if the goods originate from other areas.

For additional information please contact the Customs Administration: www.carina.hr

The transport of house pets across state borders is possible only with the necessary veterinary documentation certifying the animals' state of health. Cats and dogs must be fitted with an electronic identification system (microchip). Up to five pets can be imported at border crossings approved for the circulation of certain house pets, whilst the import of larger numbers of animals must be made at a border crossing where there is a border veterinary inspection.

When travelling with your pet, you are responsible for it

When bringing your pet into the Republic of Croatia, it is your responsibility to meet all the conditions necessary for its importation. Please check, for instance, whether your pet has been vaccinated, that is, re-vaccinated, on time, whether an antibody titer test has been performed and whether it has a valid passport or veterinary certificate. If your pet does not meet these criteria, then your entry into the Republic of Croatia may be denied, that is, your pet can be returned to the country of origin or quarantined at the permitted border crossing. The owner will bear all costs arising from the implementation of these measures.

In line with the regulations on veterinary conditions for the non-commercial transportation of pets, the following animal species are considered as pets: dogs, cats, pet ferrets (Mustela putorius) from the marten family (Mustelidae), invertebrates (except for bees and crayfish), ornamental tropical fish, amphibians, reptiles, all bird species (except for poultry), rodents and rabbits.

Maximum number of animals

The importation of a maximum of five animals can be considered as non-commercial. The animals must be subjected to an identification and document inspection by a customs official at a border crossing of the Republic of Croatia. These animals will not be considered a commodity and must be accompanied by their owner or a person authorised by the owner to accompany them for the entirety of the trip.

Conditions

General import conditions for dogs, cats and tame martens (also called domestic ferret, white ferret, African ferret, weasel, skunk, tamed ferret, domestic weasel or tamed weasel – Mustela putorius) coming from EU member states and low-risk countries outside the EU:

- They must be fitted with an electronic identification system (microchip). If the animal is fitted with a microchip that is not in line with the ISO Standard 11784 or 11785, the owner must provide the appropriate microchip scanner. The name and address of the animal's owner must be determinable at all times. The animal's passport or certificate, which is transported with the animal, needs to contain the microchip number which has been issued by a veterinarian.

- They must be accompanied by a passport or certificate issued by a veterinarian authorised by the relevant body.

- They must be vaccinated against rabies

Animals coming from EU countries, or countries outside the EU that are considered low-risk, that are under three months of age and have not been vaccinated can be imported into the territory of the Republic of Croatia if the owner or accompanier holds a valid passport or certificate and if the animals have been living in the same place since birth and have not been in contact with wild animals which may have been exposed to infections, or are travelling with their mother on whom they are still dependent.

Dogs, cats and members of the marten family coming from high-risk countries must fulfil the following conditions:

- They must be fitted with an electronic identification system (microchip)
- They must have a veterinary certificate issued by an official veterinarian or, at re-entry, a passport (dogs from Croatia)
- They must be vaccinated against rabies
- They must have undergone a test on the neutralization of antibodies with the titration of antibodies equalling at least 0.5 IU/ml on a sample taken by a certified veterinarian, in a certified laboratory, 30 days after vaccination at the earliest and three months prior to transfer. A list of authorized facilities can be found at the following web page:

http://ec.europa.eu/food/animal/liveanimals/pets/approval_en.htm.

The stipulated period of three months is not applicable in the case of re-entry of pets from the Republic of Croatia whose passport confirms that the titration of antibodies with a positive result was carried out before the animal left the Republic of Croatia.

Animals imported commercially, and those being shipped as a parcel, need to be examined by a veterinarian prior to shipment.

Health services

There are hospitals and clinics located in all larger towns and cities, while smaller centres have dispensaries and pharmacies only.

Foreign visitors who are covered by health insurance in their own country are not obliged to pay for emergency medical services during a private stay in the Republic of Croatia if a convention on Social Security has been signed between Croatia and the visitors' country of origin, i.e. if they have in their possession a certificate stipulated by such a convention confirming their right to health care. Health care (including transport) is used for emergency cases in the manner and according to regulations valid for Croatian citizens covered by Social Security, with identical participation in health care costs (participation). Foreign tourists coming from countries with which no such convention has been signed personally bear the costs of health services rendered.

If you notice a natural, technical or technological threat or an accident which might threaten the life or well being of people, property or environment

Dial 112, free of charge, 24 hours a day, from every telephone in the Republic of Croatia. You do not need to be aware of the territorial or occupational jurisdiction of the emergency services but you should just explain:

- what happened
- where did it happen
- when did it happen
- are there any casualties
- what type of casualties are there
- which type of help do you need
- who you are

By dialling 112 you can reach

- emergency medical services
- fire department
- police department
- mountain rescue
- coast-guard rescue
- the help of other emergency services and protection and rescue operation forces

When dialling 112 it is possible to communicate in:

- English
- German
- Italian
- Hungarian
- Slovakian
- Check

PRACTICAL ADVICE

Outdoor activities

- Do not venture into nature alone.
- Tell relatives or friends the route and plan of your journey
- Walk on marked paths and trails
- Take sufficient quantities of water with you
- Prepare adequate clothing and footwear
- Prepare mobile telephone devices – charge your battery before you leave
- Monitor weather forecasts
- Handle open fires carefully and in line with regulations only whilst handling open fires is allowed
- Do not throw cigarette butts or flammable objects outside

- Choose goals and activities in nature according to your abilities and health conditions
- Learn about your chosen direction and the potential dangers on the road and locality
- Do not leave rubbish in nature
- Beware of flora and fauna in nature
- Always carry a card on which you have family members' contact details as well as information about your health problems (if any)
- DO NOT go into the mountains without a trained mountain guide

Fire prevention

Check that you have undertaken all the necessary measures to prevent fire!

Do not throw burning or inflammable objects into the environment!

Observe signs forbidding the lighting of fires!

Take care that your parked vehicles do not obstruct fire fighting vehicle approach and access roads.

What should you do in case of fire?

- When you notice an immediate danger of fire or fire itself, immediately try to eliminate the potential danger and extinguish the fire in accordance with your mental and physical abilities, while taking care not to endanger yourself or another person
- When eliminating the danger of fire or extinguishing the fire, use a fire extinguisher for extinguishing small fires and any available equipment for fire extinguishing (buckets filled with water, sand, fireproof blankets, metal plates, etc.)

- In case of failure to eliminate the fire hazards, or failure of firefighting, promptly notify the fire department about the event on telephone number 112
- Inform the people in the area about the dangers of fire before the arrival of firefighters

REMEMBER:

For non-compliance of fire protection, the Ministry of Internal Affairs will submit a criminal complaint.

On the road

- Avoid traffic jams during the peak tourism season and driving at weekends and holidays
- Be well rested when driving
- Adjust your speed to the conditions on the road and the speed limits
- In the event of a traffic jam, be patient and take sufficient quantities of water with you

At sea

- In case of an accident or sea pollution, call 195 (National Headquarters for Search and Rescue at Sea) or 112
- Before setting sail, inform yourself of the weather forecast, especially for the Adriatic
- While swimming, stay in sight of other swimmers
- Inform family and friends of the approximate location in which you will be diving and mark the area appropriately
- Moderate your exposure to the sun and use protective mediums

- Do not overestimate your own capabilities
- Have sufficient quantities of drinking water with you
- Do not fall asleep on your air-bed
- Do not venture into the sea (on an air-bed or a small vessel) in the event of Bura wind (the wind which blows from land towards the sea)

CROATIA BY CAR

Documents

To enter Croatia, a driver's licence, an automobile registration card and vehicle insurance documents are required.

An international driving licence is desirable for renting vehicles (rent-a-car). The permit is issued by the motor club of the driver's country of domicile. The driver of a motor vehicle registered abroad entering the territory of the Republic of Croatia must have a valid International Motor Third Party Liability Insurance document valid on the territory of the European Union, or some other evidence of the existence of such insurance. International insurance documents and evidence are considered to be either an official licence plate of a vehicle normally stationed on the territory of a country whose national insurance bureau is a signatory of the Multilateral Agreement, or a valid Green Card issued for a vehicle which originates from a country whose national insurance bureau is not a signatory of the Multilateral Agreement and other documents and evidences whose validity is known by the Croatian Insurance Bureau.

Speed Limits:

- within settled areas - 50 km/h
- outside settled areas - 90 km/h
- on major roads designed exclusively for motor vehicles and on highways - 110 km/h
- on motorways - 130 km/h
- for motor vehicles with a trailer without brakes - 80 km/h

- for buses and buses with a light trailer - 80 km/h; on motorways - 100 km/h, except for buses used in organised transport of children

Regulations:

Driving with dipped headlights is obligatory during winter time.

The use of mobile telephones while driving is forbidden without the use of a hands-free device.

The use of seat belts is obligatory for the driver and all passengers in the motor vehicle.

A reflective sleeveless jacket is an obligatory part of every vehicle's equipment. The driver is obliged to wear it when performing works on the vehicle on the road (changing a tyre, doing repair works on the car, filling up with petrol, stopping other cars in an attempt to seek help, etc.)

Advice for safe driving:

Respect traffic regulations and speed limits. For longer journeys, rest at purpose-built rest areas. Reduce and adjust your speed in wet road conditions. These are all prerequisites to a safe arrival at your destination.

Petrol stations:

In larger cities and on motorways, petrol stations are open 24 hours a day.

Petrol stations sell Eurosuper 95, Super 95, Super 98, Super plus 98, Euro Diesel and Diesel. Gas (LPG) is available in major cities and at petrol stations on motorways.

For information on fuel prices and a list of centres selling LPG gas go to: www.ina.hr; www.omv.hr; www.tifon.hr; and www.hak.hr.

Highway toll charges:

Motorways:

Basic obligations in case of a traffic accident

First inform the police about the traffic accident by calling the number 192 or the unique European emergency phone number 112. This is not obligatory in the event of a traffic accident which results only in material damage.

If there are injured persons call the emergency medical services (tel: 194)

Secure the site of the accident, put on your reflective vest, set up a triangle and undertake measures to eliminate any new possible dangers. Wait for the arrival of the police.

In the event of any damage to the vehicle, you must obtain a police report about the damage to the vehicle, without which you cannot cross the state border. Should you require vehicle repair services, or if your vehicle needs towing, call Road Assistance, on 1987. If calling from abroad, dial +385 1 1987.

How to avoid traffic jams

To avoid unnecessarily prolonging your journey and getting caught in traffic jams, you are advised to:

- plan your trip by using the traffic organiser from the Tourist Information Brochure, in which the days and directions of the highest expected densities of traffic are stated. If possible avoid travelling on Saturdays
- check the conditions of road and ferry traffic with HAK (HAK Information Centre: +385 1 4640 800 or on www.hak.hr, or by downloading the HAK application on your smart phone) or on the Second Radio Station of Croatian Radio (98.5 Mhz) before the start of your journey

SAILING IN THE REPUBLIC OF CROATIA

The skipper of a vessel entering the territorial waters of the Republic of Croatia by sea must take the shortest route to the nearest port open to international traffic in order to carry out border control formalities, to obtain the relevant official vignette (sticker) and for the verification of crew members and passenger lists at the Harbour Master's Office or branch office.

The skipper of a vessel which is brought into Croatia by road, or which is moored in a port or in some other approved location within the Republic of Croatia, must obtain the official vignette (sticker) and verify the list of crew members and passengers in the Harbour Master's Office or a branch office, prior to setting out to sea.

The vignette (sticker) must be obtained for a vessel of 3 m or more in length, as well as for a vessel less than 3 m in length if its total propulsion power is 5 kW or more.

The official vignette (sticker) is not obligatory for a vessel using only oars/paddles, regardless of its length (such as a kayak, beach canoe, pedal boat or similar).

The official vignette is not required by a vessel while in storage in a port or in any other such approved place in the Republic of Croatia.

Life boats and jet skis are subject to the same regulations regarding the possession of a vignette.

The official vignette (sticker) must be displayed in a visible location on the vessel. Its period of validity is one year from the date of issue. The counterfoil of the vignette must be affixed to the vessel's list of persons.

A vessel sailing in the Republic of Croatia must carry the following original documents:

- The official vignette (sticker)
- Verified list of crew and passengers
- Verified list of persons who can stay aboard the vessel (for vessels which intend to change crews while sailing in the Republic of Croatia)
- Confirmation (receipt) of payment of fees for sailing safety, lighting, maritime information charts and administrative fees
- Confirmation (receipt) of payment of the flat rate sojourn tax, for vessels more than 5 m in length with bunks
- Proof of seaworthiness of the vessel
- Proof that the skipper of the vessel is qualified to command the vessel
- Proof of third party insurance
- Proof of ownership or the owner's authorisation to use the vessel.

List of crew members and passengers

The list of crew and passengers includes crew members and passengers who are on the vessel, and is approved by signature and seal at the Harbour Master's Office or branch office.

If the skipper of a vessel does not intend to change the crew during their stay in Croatian waters and while the official vignette is valid, they do not need to further report to the Harbour Master's Office or branch office.

Vessels with no facilities for extended stay (vessels with no bunks) do not need to have a crew member and passenger list.

Crew of the vessel that entered into the Republic of Croatia can be modified (wholly or partly), and the newly boarded crew must be registered at a port office (by making a new list of the crew and passengers), and after verification of the new crew lists, by port authorities or offices, the new crew in this formation must leave the Republic of Croatia on this particular boat.

List of persons

The skipper of a vessel intending to change their crew while sailing in the Republic of Croatia must present to the Harbour Master's Office or branch office a list of persons who will be staying on the vessel during the validity of the vignette. The total number of persons included in the List of Persons cannot exceed double capacity plus 30% of the unit capacity of the vessel.

The capacity of the vessel is defined according to the vessel's documentation as issued by the competent authorities of the country under whose flag the vessel sails, and if the vessel's documentation does not contain information about the capacity, the same shall be calculated in accordance with the Book of Rules on Boats and Yachts and the Rules and Regulations for the Statutory Certification of Boats and Yachts.

The List of Persons is certified with the vignette counterfoil.

The List of Persons can be completed in its entirety at the time the vignette is obtained, but it can also be completed later on, at the latest when individual persons included in the List first board the vessel.

If the List is completed later on, each addition must be verified in the Harbour Master's Office or its branch office.

The number of changes of persons included in the List of Persons is unlimited.

The List of Persons does not include persons staying on a vessel only while the vessel is staying in a port or at anchor.

The List of Persons does not include children less than 12 years of age, and they are not included in the maximum number of persons.

The List of Persons on vessels arriving by sea need not be presented at the same time as the official vignette is obtained, but can also be presented later when crew members are changed in Croatia.

Registration of residence

All foreigners entering the Republic of Croatia on a foreign vessel intended for sports and recreation, who intend to use that vessel for accommodation, must register their residence in the Republic of Croatia exclusively in the port or harbour in which they undergo border control.

If a foreigner crosses the State border at one of the road border crossings and is transporting the vessel they intend to stay on, the marina where the vessel will be launched registers the residence.

If the vessel is launched in a small port, the visitor must personally register their residence at the police station in authority of the territory.

These regulations apply exclusively to vessels on which the foreigner will be accommodated.

Foreigners whose vessels are berthed in one of the Croatian marinas must report their arrival in the marina.

Sojourn tax

Owners or users of vessels which are more than 5 m in length and have bunks are required to pay a flat rate sojourn tax.

The sojourn tax may be paid in the Harbour Master's Office or its branch office as a flat rate for residence periods of 8, 15, 30 and 90 days, or 1 year.

The receipt for the flat rate sojourn tax should be kept on the vessel at all times and the skipper of the vessel must present it to the authorised person on demand.

Vessels sailing from the Republic of Croatia

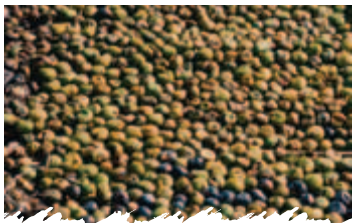

The skipper of a vessel due to sail out of the Republic of Croatia is under the following obligations:

- To pass border control at one of the ports open to international traffic;
- To verify the list of crew members and passengers at the Harbour Master's Office or a branch thereof.

Having fulfilled their obligations, the skipper of a vessel must leave the coastal waters and the territorial waters of the Republic of Croatia by the shortest possible route.

Foreigners navigating Croatian boats and yachts

In accordance with amendments to the Regulation on Boats and Yachts, in effect since 11 February 2009, the Republic of Croatia unilaterally recognises licences of foreign countries for the navigation of Croatian boats and yachts. For more information on foreign licenses recognised in Croatia, go to the Ministry of the Sea, Transport and Infrastructure official web-site: www.mppi.hr

Cultural and natural sites on the UNESCO List of World Heritage

There are numerous cultural monuments in Croatia. The most famous ones and included on the List of World Heritage by UNESCO are the historic Complex of Split and Diocletian's Palace, the Old Town of Dubrovnik, The Euphrasius Basilica in the historic center of Poreč, historic town of Trogir, Cathedral of St. James in Šibenik and Starogradsko Field. Plitvice Lakes National Park, the most beautiful and most famous national park, is our only natural resource that is found on the prestigious list.

On the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity are the festivity of Saint Blaise, the patron of Dubrovnik; Croatian lace-making; the annual carnival procession of the bell-ringers from the area of Kastav; procession 'Following the Cross' on the island of Hvar; singing in narrow intervals of Istria and the Croatian Primorje; the Annual Spring Procession of the Queen or Ljelje from Gorjani; the art of making traditional wooden children's toys from the area of Croatian Zagorje; 'Alka' - knights' tournament in Sinj; Gingerbread craft in northern Croatia; Bećarac - vocal - instrumental song from the region of Slavonia, Baranja and Srijem and the silent wheel dance from the Dalmatian hinterland. Croatia is among the countries with the most protected intangible cultural heritage inscribed on UNESCO's List. Musical expression Ojkanje is on the List of Intangible Cultural Heritage in need of urgent safeguarding.

FOOD AND DRINK

Where to eat?

Apart from hotels offering both full board and half board accommodation, restaurants, inns, taverns, wine cellars, pizzerias and fast-food restaurants can be found in all cities, tourist towns and along the main roads. Restaurants and inns offering local Croatian cuisine will be of particular interest to gourmets.

All foods of animal origin are subject to the same standards as in countries of the European Union and are under constant veterinary and health supervision.

What to eat?

In addition to standard European cuisine, Croatia offers its most popular local dishes and specialties. Among cold dishes, there are the renowned Dalmatian or Istrian prosciuttos, cheeses from the island of Pag and the Lika region, sheep's cheese, Slavonian kulen (a spicy cured pork meat speciality), the renowned garlic sausages (češnjovka) of Samobor and the Zagorje region, fresh cottage cheese with cream, and more. The main dishes on offer vary depending on the area that you are visiting. In Dalmatia, the Primorje coastal area, on the islands and in Istria, they are based largely on fish and other seafood, while typical meat dishes include paštica (a stewed beef dish) and cooked lamb.

In continental Croatia, there is a rich selection of meat dishes, including the particularly prized roast turkey with mlinci (boiled rolled pastry), roast lamb, roast suckling pig and boiled or baked štrukli (thin rolled pastry stuffed with fresh cottage cheese and cream). Among desserts, apart from the already mentioned štrukli, there are walnut loaf, poppy seed loaf and cheese or fruit strudel.

What to drink?

The cultivation of grapes and production of select wines is a centuries-old tradition among Croatian viticulturists both in continental Croatia and the Primorje area (the littoral), and Dalmatia. Some of the best known varieties of Croatian red wines along the Adriatic coast and on the islands are: Dingač, Teran, Merlot, Cabernet, Opolo, Plavac and Postup, while the most appreciated of the white wine varieties are: Malvasia, Pošip, Pinot, Kujundžuša, Žlahtina and Muscat. In continental parts, one can enjoy the famous Riesling, Graševina, Burgundy, Traminac and other wines. As far as spirits go, the most famous are the šljivovica or plum brandy, travarica, lozovača and biska, while among dessert drinks there are Prošek and Maraschino.

Dear Guests,

For your personal comfort and in order to respect the law, please check that you have been properly registered for the entire period of your stay in our country from the date of your arrival to the date of your departure.

Your verification is especially important if you are staying in private accommodation, both for the quality of service rendered and for your own personal safety, as well as the prevention of the illegal activities of hosts who are not licensed to provide accommodation services.

We thank you for your cooperation and wish you a pleasant stay.

Sincerely,
Croatian National Tourist Board.
